3. [REDACTED] GS-05, Information Control Clerk, National Photographic Interpretation Center, requested that her retirement, scheduled for 28 September 1973, be deferred until 28 September 1974 for compassionate reasons. [REDACTED] stated that shortly before joining the Agency, her financial status necessitated that she withdraw her contributions to the Civil Service Retirement Fund. These contributions covered a period of approximately seven years of government employment. She stated that she has always intended to make a redeposit for this service, however, other financial commitments have prevented her from accomplishing this goal. From 1951 until 1960 she had sole responsibility for supporting her two sons, and in subsequent years she has had financial obligations for medical and burial expenses for her parents and her sister. [REDACTED] currently owes approximately $1,900.00 as a redeposit, and unless this amount is paid her retirement annuity will be sharply reduced. She concluded that an additional year at full salary would provide her with almost two years within which to make this redeposit and obtain credit for all of her service.

The Director, National Photographic Interpretation Center stated that [REDACTED] is a conscientious, industrious and efficient employee, and that he believes she can be expected to provide continued strong service if her request is approved. D/NPIC further stated that, because of their unique situation which makes it difficult to keep clerical positions fully staffed, he will be pleased to utilize [REDACTED] services for as long as she is allowed to remain. D/NPIC, with the concurrence of the Deputy Director for Intelligence, recommended that [REDACTED] request be approved.
